

Here's a fun new game for you to try at your next Tupperware Party . . .

Christmas with the Right Family

Hand out Tiny Treasure's gifts (gadgets) to everyone . . . don't be picky! Read the story slowly enough for the gifts to be passed back and forth. EVERY TIME the word RIGHT is read, they pass their gift to the person to the right; when LEFT is read, they pass the gift to the left. They can keep the gift they end up with or trade it with someone else at the end of the demo.

Christmas was almost here and Mother Right was finishing the Christmas baking. Father Right, Sue Right and Billy Right returned from their last minute Christmas errands.

"There's not much left to be done," said Father Right as he came into the kitchen.

"Did you leave the basket of food at the church?" asked Mother Right

"I'm glad my shopping is done," said Billy Right. "I don't have any money left."

By the time Susan Right returned, Mother Right, Father Right, and Billy Right had begun trimming the tree. The entire Right Family sang carols as they finished the decorating. Then they left all the presents arranged under the tree and went to bed, hoping they had selected the right gifts for their family.

Now, I hope you have the right present for yourself, because that's all that's left of our story, except, to wish you a Merry Christmas . . . isn't that right?
